May 1, 2008

Hello and welcome to May 2008! Although winter is really holding on this year I honestly think spring is on the way :) Don't let the snow get you down. There is plenty to do and lots going on around here.

Just yesterday (April 29) I was outside for hours raking the yard and cleaning up our outdoor portrait area. What does that have to do with good news you ask? Well, while I was working away I thought of a few new additions to build this year. Of course, the snow needs to go away so I can get things built and ready for you. Once I do that I will get some photos on the blog so you can see.

For now let's get to some other stuff.

Mother's Day

Not that any of you forgot cough but I wanted to remind you of one of the greatest days of the month! Mom's all over country will be overwhelmed with flowers, candy, cards, trinkets, new slippers and clothes. You should be different. Be as unique as your Mom is by getting her a gift card to Frozen Image Photography. I know most Moms will be hesitant but how many of you have current beautiful photographs of your Mom (or parents)? Wouldn't you like one?

If you know your Mom would never get her portrait taken how about getting one for her! Does your Mom have current, unique portraits of her children? Well, I'm certain she would love to. Gift cards and appointments are only a phone call away!

Our BLOG

I am beginning to really enjoy the idea of a Blog!

If you haven't been checking it on a regular basis you are really missing out. There are many new images posted on a regular basis. Not to mention the coupons! I keep the stories and text to a minimum. Besides, a picture is worth a thousand words! If you always forget to stop in you can subscribe to the Blog. Along the right side of the page under the photo of Tanja and I is a link to subscribe to the Blog. After you do that, every time I post a new Blog you will get it in your inbox! How cool is that?!

High School Seniors

Graduating class of 2009 - can you believe it? Your last year of High School. It's actually the last year for many things but only the beginning of the rest of your life!

It's a year to be celebrated. A year to have fun and certainly a year to remember. That's where we come in. We specialize in helping you remember. From now until October we dedicate 100% of our time to you! Well, maybe 95% but, hey, everyone needs to sleep a little :)

We have many new things in store for you this summer. New props, new backgrounds, new lighting techniques, new image processing techniques. Something that has not changed is our sincere desire to capture your personality and create portraits you will be happy to carry with you the rest of your life!

We are still accepting applications for Senior Representatives for the Class of 2009!

What's a Senior Rep you ask? It's an opportunity to receive a free Senior Portrait session, huge discounts on your senior portrait order, and the opportunity to be in our drawing and win an IPOD

Application deadline is May 15, 2008. Once we receive all the applications we will review them and contact our choices for the new Class of 2009 Senior Reps! After your portrait session we will provide you with a leather album of your prints to show off to your friends. The more friends you refer to us the more stuff you get in return. Also, each friend you refer gets your name in the hat for the IPOD drawing. Refer 10 friends, get 10 chances to win! Everyone you refer will also receive 8 free wallets with their order! Feel free to call us for more information 457-5406 and to become one of our 2009 Senior Reps! We look forward to hearing from you and even better...we look forward to photographing you!

There are limited openings to be a Senior Rep so call today!

Outdoor Portraits

I know it sounds silly but we have already been outside! The anticipation of warm weather, long days and hot sun is getting the best of me. If you look out your window you may cringe, but as a photographer I see opportunity for unique and creative portraits. Check out our Blog to see some recent outdoor portraits.

In The News

- ◊ Dance Theatre Fairbanks - We are happy to announce that we have joined forces with Dance Theatre Fairbanks. Their up and coming production of Thumbelina is set to open May 23, 2008. Frozen Image Photography will be providing all of the photography during the show. We are also scheduled to provide all of the group and individual portraits of everyone in costume next week! We are really thankful they have decided to allow us to help them. Dance Theatre Fairbanks is a fantastic and tireless organization. We look forward to a long and healthy relationship

- ◊ Armed Forces YMCA - A few weeks ago we had the honor and pleasure of capturing portraits at the 2008 Armed Forces Father Daughter Ball. Fathers in uniform and daughters dressed like princess' - It was amazing and we hope to see them all again next year!

- ◊ Most (or all) of you know about our portraits programs - Lifetime Portrait Program, and numerous Baby Clubs - Family portraits will be exclusive to these programs. What does that mean to you? Well, the only families we will be doing family portraits for will be members of these programs. Of course, that is only family portraits. Couples, individuals, siblings, etc are still working normally.

- ◊ The middle of last year we stopped offering images online for previewing and ordering for many reasons. All of our previewing has been done in studio. This is a much better process that everyone has enjoyed. I'm sure most of you know this too :) We are getting ready to start our busiest season....summer. With that in mind we are trying to make sure we accommodate everyone's schedule. As of May 1, 2008 we will do portrait appointments Monday - Friday. Saturdays will be for Preview/Order sessions only. Most people have Saturdays off and both parents can come in to preview images and make decisions on orders. This is subject to change based on everyone's input but for now this is it.

On a personal note...

Most of you know {but some do not} that I compete regularly in handgun competition. It's important to also know that I love it! :)

I recently received confirmation that I have obtained a slot and will be competing in the World Championships in Bali, Indonesia later this year! To say I am excited would be a gross understatement. It's the chance of a lifetime and Tanja has graciously given me the go-ahead! Wish me luck!

Dates we will be closed in 2008

June 9-14, 2008

July 3-6, 2008

September 2-6, 2008

We look forward to exceeding your expectations.
If you're not happy...we're not done!
